

Dear librarian,

I'm interested in our local library stocking a new children's book series called Heroes of Liberty. They are beautiful, biographical books about inspiring figures like Alexander Hamilton, Ronald Reagan, Amy Coney Barrett and Margaret Thatcher written for children ages 6-12.

The books are available on ingramcontent.com/ and baker-taylor.com.
